

“The Dilemma”

1. The Accident

I hit a car next to mine, so I waited for the owner outside. I wore a troubled expression, but he told me to smile.

2. Funny How Things Turn Out

The next day I received keys to a rental, a hot sports car. I gave a handsome brother my number, and he called.

3. Do You Believe in Love after the First Sight?

We text every day, and I really needed a friend. How alone I felt but with you I felt—comforted.

4. Preparation

I made sure to look immaculate because it felt like ages since my last. I wanted you to remember my spirit and my class.

5. The Date

You couldn't take your eyes off me even when you tried. Your thoughts stroked against my lips, breasts, hips, and in between my thighs.

6. Dirty Dancing

My body succumbed to the music as my hips swayed loose. I felt the confidence in your fingertips; you managed my moves.

7. The Encounter

You entered my room, and my heartbeat hastened. You told me that you saw the woman I am, so I stripped naked.

8. The Aftermath

Our feelings for one another grew each day, but situations in our lives kept us astray. Exhausted from running away from pain, we drifted away.

9. The Dilemma

Before I met you, there was another man. The only one I have ever loved, and he returned to take my hand.

10. The Avenger

He avenged my hand, and you left me in the wind. It should be a simple choice, but I am torn between the two again.
